I CLOUD-BASED LEGAL FORMS AND E-SUBMISSIONS INTEGRATED WITH QUILL

Gain expert support - with Quill's forms suite powered by FormEvo.co.uk and SDLT.co.uk, and backed up by Quill, enjoy our combined, friendly, efficient, complementary helpdesk services.

Save time locating forms - search your library, filter by law type, tag favourites, highlight frequently used and personalise your dashboard.

Strengthen security - there are all the same security measures as Quill with ISO 27001 standard data centres, Cyber Essentials certification and restricted access controls.

Introduce flexibility - the cloud format allows your staff to operate remotely, and reduces the strain on your internal IT infrastructure and technical team.

Manage matters optimally - download forms as PDFs onto your desktop, save forms into accompanying case folders, add comments and completion reminders onto draft forms, and see the status of all your live forms within Quill. You'll have an even firmer grasp of case progress and a clearer audit trail.

Meet regulatory guidelines - receive auto-applied form updates and new forms as dictated by evolving legislation with continued access to earlier form versions for older, ongoing cases.

Lower expenditure - there's no upfront cost, annual fee or restriction to areas of law as you simply pay a monthly subscription on a pay-as-you-go basis.*

Simplify associated legal accounting - receive email acknowledgement of successful submission and payment receipts to pass to your cashier to action as case-related disbursements or expenses.

Work smarter - add post-it note reminders or alerts to forms so you can audit progress from inception, to completion, to submission.

Handle forms easily - at any time, instantly see the status of your live forms in Quill - be they new, draft, pending or complete.

*E-submission fees collected on behalf of relevant government agencies.

I CLIENT PRAISE

"FormEvo has developed an enormously innovative built-for-the-cloud product that enables our teams to work as normal, wherever they are. It integrates perfectly with our other main legal software provider, Quill, making life easier and quicker for our users. Not only is using the combined product a delight compared to our previous on-server product, but it has cemented its place on our list of essential tools as Quill's forms team continues to make regular refinements and iterative improvements to the core forms product – both in response to changes in the legal landscape and also following input from our users – as well as bringing other complementary services to the product range."
